Shorb Bros. To Lead Revival Services At New Hope

Merl, Happy and Wil Shorb, three brothers from Silver Spring, Maryland, will lead the Revival Services at New Hope Baptist Church, beginning on Sunday morning, August 7. The Shorb Brothers have been singing together professionally for over 10 years. Each year, they travel over 20,000 miles holding revivals and presenting concerts. They were reared on country and gospel music. The happy variety of the Don Marsh orchestra provides the background music for their singing on 8-track tape.

The Shorbs will be singing special music at each service, and the preaching will be done mostly by Wil Shorb. You will not want to miss any of these great Revival Services! Plan now to come and bring the entire family. A nursery will be provided. The services will be held at 7:30 p.m. each night, concluding on Friday night, August 12. New Hope Baptist Church is located 6 miles east of Appomattox on Highway 24 rt. Vera. Rev. Clarence H. Davis, pastor of the church cordially invites everyone to attend.

EATING WELL LUNCH IMPORTANT FOR PRESCHOOLERS

By Barbara Morlang, R.D.
State Nutrition Consultant

Since lifetime food habits are usually formed during the preschool years, proper feeding of the preschool child is important.

The noon meal can be a learning situation where a variety of foods is offered. Mother need to remember that a young child has a small "tummy" and his capacity for food is limited.

The preschool child needs nourishing foods in small amounts and at frequent intervals, and needs to be encouraged to eat new foods. Have him take a bit of a new food, and serve it with a food he is familiar with.

Most children like foods that are not too hot or too cold. They also prefer simple foods rather than casseroles or mixed dishes.

Preschoolers like to be able to feed themselves, so serve bite-sized pieces of orange segments, apple slices, cheese cubes or celery with peanut butter.

Desserts should be nutritious and simple. Ice cream custards, puddings made with milk and eggs, fresh or canned fruit in jello all taste good and are nutritious.

Remember that a small child needs the same foods that an adult needs, but in smaller amounts.

CPL STRATTON RETURNS HOME.

MRS. RICHARD BABCOCK POE
the former Miss Teresa Faye Ragland

Teresa Faye Ragland Weds Richard Babcock Poe

The marriage of Miss Teresa Faye Ragland to Richard Babcock Poe took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the west lawn of the Mariah Wright House at Appomatox Court House National Historic Park.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Willie Lawrence Amos and the late William Lacy Ragland. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Clarence Carlyle Poe and the late Mr. Poe.

The Rev. Marvin A. Gold, Chaplin at Virginia Baptist Hospital, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, Mr. Thomas R. Terry, organist, presented a program of nupital music.

Escorted by her step-father and given in marriage by her parents the bride wore a gown of ivory colored organza with a ruffle around a venise lace yolk that fell over bare shoulders and draped into the back. A full flounce showed off a chapel skirt at the hemline. Venise lace trimmed the bodice, skirt and attached chapel train. Her flat was of ivory organza and she carried a colonial bouquet of Pittosporum and coral zorina sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Floyd E. Williams of Appomattox, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of apricot voile with white venise trim. A circular skirt dropped from a fitted waist and bodice. From the square neckline drapped a raplet collar edged in lace. She wore a hat dyed to match the gown with fabric to match accenting the crown in a band, and fabric roses at the side. She carried a bouquet of Coral daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kevin Elaine Koch and Miss Frances Ann Sanderson of Lynchburg. Their dresses and hats were identical to the honor attendant and they carried bouquets of coral daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Sheri Ann Williams of Appomattox, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of ivory organza with a high neckline trimmed in ivory lace and a detachable cape trimmed with ivory lace. She wore coral daisies and baby's breath in her hair and carried a natural basket trimmed with apricot ribbon.

Clarence Carlyle Poe, Jr. of Newport News was his brother's best man and ushers were Floyd Elliott Williams, brother-in-law of the bride; James Albert Beaty, III, nephew of the bridegroom and Michael Elliott Williams, nephew of the bride, all of Appomattox, and George Randolph Noblin of Farmville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Amos chose a floor length gown of mint green crepe with a matching cape. She wore a corsage of white daisies.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Poe wore a floor length gown of yellow crepe with a matching chiffon cape. She wore a corsage of white daisies.

Mrs. James A. Beaty, Jr. of Appomattox, sister of the groom, was mistress of ceremonies.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Amos entertained with a reception at the Falling River Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School, attended Central Virginia Community College and was graduated from Virginia Baptist Hospital School of Nursing.

The bridegroom was graduated from Appomattox High School and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and is a student at the Medical College of Virginia School of Dentistry.

After a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will live in Richmond.

AHS Class of 1932 Holds Reunion at Beverly Plantation

Beverly Plantation, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Booker, was the setting for the forty-fifth reunion of the Class of 1932 of Appomattox High School. Located on U. S. Route 60, on the line between Appomattox and Buckingham counties, this picturesque and beautiful home was a most attractive scene for this reunion, held on June 24, 1977.

Mr. Booker, a member of the class, and Mrs. Booker invited the members of the class and their husbands, wives, or friends as their guests for the occasion. Dinner, consisting of about twenty-five different dishes, was served buffet style from the dining room and enjoyed on the patio. The large table, laden with such a variety of delicious food, was a sight long to be remembered. Reverend Omer Burnett, husband of one of the members of the class, gave thanks for the meal and fellowship.

Following dinner, the Bookers showed their guests through their home, furnished entirely with antiques. Seeing this collection was a rare privilege for all. This home, passing from generation to generation, has remained in the same family since colonial times.

In addition to Malcolm Booker, members of the class present were: Dorothy (Covington) Bona, Clarkie (Evans) Ranson, Willie Jobe, Vera (Kern) Moore, Hazel Moon, Hilda Moore, Rachel (Morris) Day, Ruth (Morris) Jennings Claudine O'Brien, Eloise (O'Brien) Burnett, Blass Ranson, Ruby (Wooldridge) Hamilton, and Weselene (Young) Wooldridge. Guests included husbands and wives and a few friends of members.

Hazel Moon, missionary nurse to Nigeria, home on a short furlough, enjoyed this get-together with her former classmates. To the great pleasure of the class, she has been able to participate in several reunions.

During the past year, the Class of 1932 lost be death one member, Albert O'Brien of Oklahoma City. Two members, Dorothy (Covington) Bona and Weselene (Young) Wooldridge, lost their husbands, both of whom had been loyal supporters of the class reunions.

In accordance with wishes expressed for another reunion next year, plans have been made to hold a dinner meeting on the last Saturday in June (June 24, 1978) at 6:30 p.m. at the John Mosby Inn on Route 460 in Appomattox. Preceding the dinner, Claudine O'Brien and Hilda Moore will be hostesses at a Coke Party from 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. at the O'Brien home. Members of the class are urged to mark their calendar now and start making plans to attend Reunion 1978.

Officers of the Class of 1932 are: Garland Plunkett, president; Hilda Moore, vice-president; and Claudine O'Brien, secretary-treasurer. Ruby (Wooldridge) Hamilton will serve as mistress of ceremonies.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss June Carol Wood, bride-elect, was honored with a linen and trousseau shower Monday, July 25, with Misses Sandy Jamerson, Cheryl Sharp and Shelby Dunnam, serving as hostesses at the Jamerson home in Spout Spring.

The bride-elect was presented a corsage of white carnations.

Among guests present were mothers and grandmothers of the honored couple, and a group of friends and relatives of the bride and groom-elect.

The wedding of Miss Wood to Mr. K. W. (Chip) Jamerson, Jr. will be an event of August 14 at 3 p.m. in Liberty Baptist Church.

Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Childress of Altavista have announced the engagement of their daughter, Georgia Terry, to Terry Len Bayes, son of Mrs. Alice Woody Bays of Route 2, Gladstone.

Miss Childress is a June graduate of Altavista High School. Mr. Bayes is a 1975 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by Whitehurst Paving Company in Richmond.

The wedding will take place at First Baptist Church in Evington on August 13th at 7:30 P.M.

Although no invitation are being sent, friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Amy Christian, bride-elect, was honored on Saturday evening, July 23rd, with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Iris Mann, sister of the bride-elect.

Guests for the evening included Mrs. Lucille Christian, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Clemmie Gobble, mother of the groom-elect. Other guests included friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Iris Mann, sister of the bride, Mrs. Janice Dowdy and Miss Rose Glenn, sisters of the groom.

The wedding of Miss Christian to Mr. Robert Glenn will be an event of August 5, 1977 at New Hope Church.

MRS. JAMES WILLIAM ADAMS
the former Miss Hettie Nell Ayers

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Hettie Nell Ayers to James William Adams took place Saturday afternoon, July 30th at 4 o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett George Ayers of Appomattox and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Adams of Charlotte Court House.

The Rev. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Patsy Hughes, organist, Miss Lynn Doss and Miss Judy Ayers sang "If" and "We've Only Just Begun," accompanied by Miss Judy Ayers.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown trimmed at the bodice and length of her train with chantilly lace adorned with tiny white sequins. Her chapel length veil was trimmed with chantilly lace and a dainty satin bow on crown of headpiece. She carried a bouquet of daisies and roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Sandra Talbert of Gaithersburg, Maryland, was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Mary Ayers of Lynchburg was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Ayers of Appomattox, sister of the bride; and Mrs. Mary Ayers of Annandale, sister-in-law of the bride. The honor attendants wore yellow formal dresses and the bridesmaids wore blue formal dresses. They all had floral pieces and carried bouquets of daisies and roses.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Talbert of Gaithersburg, Maryland and Miss Ellen Ayers of Maryland, both nieces of the bride. They wore blue and yellow long sundresses with floral headpieces and carried long stemmed roses.

Miss Sabrina Seay, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox was flower girl. Chris Talbert of Gaithersburg, Maryland, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Johnny Jamlett of Phennix, friend of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Robert E. Ayers, brother of the bride; Macon Ayers of Annandale, brother of the bride; Robin Taylor of Madisonville; Jimmy Green of Charlotte Court House, uncle of the groom; and Bobby Barry of Appomattox.

The mother of the bride wore a sleeveless mint green gown with a matching jacket. The gown was complimented with an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ayers entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Beulah Jamerson was Mistress of Ceremonies. Miss Cheryl Reeves served at the guest book.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.
